Innovating Today for a Better Tomorrow

Driving SDGs through Knowledge, Creativity & Collaboration

The Summit of Future, Kerala – 2025 hosted by JAIN (Deemed-to-be University), Kochi, is a transformative seven-day event scheduled for January 2025, designed to push the boundaries of education, sustainability, research, innovation and entrepreneurship. The summit takes cues from the United Nations' Pact for the Future, emphasizing the importance of global cooperation on sustainability, digital transformation, and peace. In alignment with these principles, the Summit of Future, Kerala – 2025 by JAIN is built around the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), calling for collaboration and innovation to tackle the challenges of tomorrow.
